

“I NEVER WANNA SEE YOU AGAIN”- from Sixty Original Song Lyrics
by Samuel Blankson

I never wanna see you again

Verse 1

I hadn't decided what to do with you
The things you put me through
Oh boy
You treat me like a puppet on a string
In the past I've showed restraint
But its time to move you out
You had a chance to turn a brand new leaf
But instead you chose to cheat
Bad choice
You signed the destiny between us two
When I caught you playing around
Save the lies cos you've been found

Chorus

Pack your bags
Leave the keys
Shut the door, baby please
I never wanna see you again

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again

Verse2

Thought things would last forever
When we first got together
Through good or bad weather
Things changed
I guess I am saying that I am not impressed
With what you won't confess
I don't need all this stress,
Oh boy I warned you
If you ever were untrue
I'd move on set myself free
Time's come, now you loosing me.
Be a man and do what's right
Show honesty, give it up, stop playing me
Now your busted. Tell me why.

Chorus

Pack your bags
Leave the keys
Shut the door, baby please
I never wanna see you again

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again

Chorus

Pack your bags
Shut the door, baby please

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again

Bridge

I don't need your lying and cheating no more
Even if you're begging down on the floor
I suggest you take your things get out of my life
Had enough of your creeping for sure
Good to see you out my door
You should have thought it through before you cheated with another

Chorus

Pack your bags
Leave the keys
Shut the door, baby please
I never wanna see you again

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again

Chorus

Pack your bags
Leave the keys
Shut the door, baby please
I never wanna see you again

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again

Chorus

Pack your bags
Leave the keys
Shut the door, baby please
I never wanna see you again

Take your lies
And your schemes
Don't return to me please
I never wanna see you again
